

IFSTSL events 2016

Training Seminar on Food Microbiology Laboratory Accreditation

Institute of Food Science and Technology Sri Lanka organized a one day training seminar on Microbiology Laboratory Accreditation to provide preparatory guidance for accreditation against International Standard ISO 17025:2005.

This was held on 24 February 2016 at Renuka City Hotel, Colombo 03. The training session was conducted by Emeritus Professor Upali Samarajeewa who has worked on laboratory accreditation as an International Expert for United Nations Industrial Development Organization and the Asian Development Bank in 20 countries since 1998.

Thirty one participants got trained and they represented the different food manufacturing companies, Universities or research institutes.

Training Seminar On Chemical Laboratory Accreditation

Preparatory guidance for accreditation against International Standard ISO 17025:2005

IFSTSL successfully organized a two day workshop on ISO 17025:2005 based chemical laboratory accreditation on 25 and 26 May 2016, at Renuka City Hotel, Colombo 03. This workshop was organized upon request of the participants of the ISO 17025:2005 based microbiological laboratory accreditation which was successfully completed on 24 February 2016 as a one day training workshop.

Twenty four participants representing the universities, companies participated this training.

Emeritus Professor Upali Samarajeewa served as the resource person.

Dr.Eresha Mendis IFSTSL President- 2016 coordinated this event.